

THE CAT IN THE WINDOW AND THE BIRD IN THE TREE

The man watchèd the woman who watchèd the cat in the window,
The cat watchèd the bird in the tree,
The bird watchèd the boy who caught the worm in his shadow,
The worm, but of coursè, couldn't sèe.

The cat in the window and the bird in the tree,
The couple and thèir boy,
And the worm that couldn't sèe!

The man and the woman each sat and sippèd thèir coffèe,
The cat in the window slep't sound-ly,
The bird followèd the boy who, with the worm, wènt fishing,
The worm, on the hook, couldn't sèe.

The cat in the window and the bird in the tree,
The couple and thèir boy,
And the worm that couldn't sèe!

Latèr, the man watchèd the woman who watchèd the cat in the window,
The cat watchèd the bird in the tree,
The bird watchèd the boy who carrièd the fish in his shadow,
The worm, in it's belly, couldn't sèe.

The cat in the window and the bird in the tree,
The couple and thèir boy,
And the worm that couldn't sèe!